

PROTOCOL AGREEMENT

Respecting a Local Government to Government Working Relationship

THIS AGREEMENT dated for reference the 12th day of June 2007.

BETWEEN:

OKANAGAN INDIAN BAND
R.R. #7, Site 8, Comp. 20
Vernon, BC
V1T 7Z3
(the "Band")

AND:

THE CITY OF ARMSTRONG
3570 Bridge Street, P.O. Box 40
Armstrong, BC
V0E 1B0
(the "City")

WHEREAS:

- A. The Band and the City each have responsibility and authority for provision of services and governance of their residents within their respective areas of jurisdiction;
- B. The City and the Band wish to set out in this Agreement statements regarding their future communications and cooperation with each other, based on the fundamental underlying principles of trust, honesty and mutual respect;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set out herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Purpose

- 1. The purpose of this Protocol Agreement is to outline the overall intention of the Band and the City to enter into a more formal arrangement respecting a long term, cooperative working relationship.
- 2. The three underlying and fundamental purposes in this Agreement are:
 - i. Effective, adequate communications;
 - ii. Cooperation which is aimed at mutual benefit; and
 - iii. Partnerships which create lasting benefits.

Aboriginal Title and Rights

3. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted in a manner that extinguishes, abrogates or diminishes Aboriginal or treaty rights, including Aboriginal title, which are protected under s. 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.
4. Nothing in this agreement, or the negotiations leading to it, shall constitute, or be deemed to constitute legal consultation or accommodation in regard to the Aboriginal title and rights of the Band or the Okanagan Nation.

Communications

5. The parties agree to open and transparent communications with each other on areas of mutual interest as described herein.
6. The parties agree that proper communications are fundamental to this Protocol Agreement and the working relationship between the Band and the City to ensure consistent, effective and timely exchange of information on areas of mutual interest (see clause 10).

Contact Persons

7. The parties acknowledge and agree that they shall each, from time to time, appoint a principle representative who shall initially be, for the City, the City Administrator and for the Band, the Director, Band Governance, to coordinate such communications.

Public Statements

8. The Band and the City will cooperate in communications and refrain from making public statements on issues of mutual interest or concern without prior consultation, except where such consultation is for emergency or other reasons not possible. A procedure for reaching agreement on any sole or joint disclosure of information to the public is attached as Appendix A.

Confidentiality

9. The parties acknowledge and agree on the need for confidentiality in mutual communications, while recognizing the public nature of governance and, in particular, the application of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (see Appendix B for relevant sections of the Act).
10. The parties understand the need to practice diligence and to exercise caution when engaging in information exchanges, in light of the potential for public release or legally-required access of this information by third parties.
11. The City acknowledges and agrees that if it receives any documentation or information from the Band that later becomes subject to an inquiry under the applicable legislation, that it shall act reasonably to ensure that the Band receives prior notice of same.

12. The Band acknowledges and agrees that if it receives any documentation or information from the City that later becomes subject to an inquiry under the applicable legislation, that it shall act reasonably to ensure that the City receives prior notice of same.

Shared Objectives and Mutual Support

13. The parties have a number of shared objectives on which they wish to cooperate with each other and where mutually beneficial, establish partnerships, be they formal or informal, for their mutual benefit.
14. The areas of shared objectives that have been identified, but which may be expended upon by mutual agreement, include:
 - a. Effective, efficient communications;
 - b. Economic development;
 - c. Planning, regional growth strategy;
 - d. Protection of cultural resources, including archaeology;
 - e. Environmental stewardship; and
 - f. Long term, sustainable communities.
15. The Band and the City acknowledge and agree that they will support each other's individual endeavors when they are consistent with their mutual objectives as described above for the betterment of both communities.

Dispute Resolution

16. The parties agree to maintain the terms of this agreement in good faith. In the event that a dispute arises over the terms of this agreement or the practices applied to the sharing and use of information subject to this agreement, the parties will agree to the following procedure:
 - a. Appoint, through mutual agreement, a facilitator to assist the parties. If this action fails to achieve resolution;
 - b. Appoint, through the mutual agreement, a mediator to assist the parties. If this action fails to achieve resolution;
 - c. Terminate the Agreement, provided that either party provides 30 days' written notice, or through mutual agreement, refer the matter to an Arbitrator;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have executed this Agreement.
